

Follow – Learning to do what Jesus did Questionnaire.

This is not a test and there are no right or wrong answers! It is intended to help you identify where you are fruitful in kingdom works and where there are opportunities for growth.

Read through the following statements circling each number that most resonates with your normal or current experience / mindset / activity. In each section you can select as many as you want. They may all be true to some degree or at some time but choose the ones that are your experience most of the time.

| | |
|---|--|
| 1 | I don't have much margin in my diary to make space for other people |
| 2 | I want to grow in using the resources God has given me to bless others |
| 3 | I'd love God to use me to heal people but I can't really see it happening |
| 4 | I want to share the gospel with people, but I just don't know how |
| 5 | I don't really think about spiritual warfare when I think about evangelism |
| 6 | I tend to see my home as my 'castle' / private space |
| 7 | I don't really ever think about what it means to live in a just way |

| | |
|---|--|
| 1 | I am tempted to avoid people that I find difficult or who are different from me |
| 2 | I don't give a lot of thought to the needs of others |
| 3 | I see sickness and pain as just part of life that we have to put up with |
| 4 | I don't really know any non-Christians |
| 5 | I want to grow in recognising my authority in Jesus |
| 6 | I only ever invite people round to my house who I know well |
| 7 | If I'm really honest, I recognise that I hold a number of prejudices in my heart which means I treat some people differently than others |

| | |
|---|--|
| 1 | My thoughts towards others failures and needs tend to be more critical than compassionate |
| 2 | When I see someone in need, I'm moved with compassion, but I don't know what to do to help |
| 3 | When someone tells me they are in pain, I rarely think, let alone ask 'can I pray for you.' |
| 4 | I'd like to be more intentional in looking for opportunities to witness to people |
| 5 | As a rational person, I find talk of demons and spiritual oppression a bit strange and uncomfortable |
| 6 | I'd like to grow in hospitality, but I'm limited in my resources so don't know how to do it |
| 7 | I'd like to spend more time thinking about what it would look like for us as a church to be a 'voice for the voiceless' in our community |

| | |
|---|---|
| 1 | I respond negatively to interruptions |
| 2 | I don't really see it as my responsibility to care for the poor |
| 3 | I know God can heal but I don't really have any faith that He will |
| 4 | I don't often pray for my non-Christian friends / relatives / neighbours etc. |
| 5 | I am often gripped with fear and intimidation when I think about telling people about Jesus |
| 6 | I've never really thought of eating and drinking with others as a 'kingdom work' |
| 7 | I don't give much attention to whether or not the things I buy or invest in are ethical |

| | |
|---|---|
| 1 | Rather than being fully present with people, I am often distracted |
| 2 | I find it easy to give my money but not as easy to give my time |
| 3 | I see healing as a gift that is only for a few select people |
| 4 | I avoid conversations about faith because I'm scared of not being able to answer people's questions |
| 5 | The whole concept of spiritual warfare scares and disturbs me |
| 6 | I see hospitality as more of means of fellowship than evangelism |
| 7 | I'd like to see the gospel bring healing to those who have been oppressed and marginalised |

| | |
|---|--|
| 1 | I tend to avoid people who are different to me |
|---|--|

| | |
|---|--|
| 2 | I'm keen to explore how we as a church can respond to the financial, physical and practical needs of our community |
| 3 | I don't know how I can tell people that God binds up the broken-hearted when I feel so broken myself |
| 4 | I have never led someone to Christ |
| 5 | I want to be more confident in who I am in Christ |
| 6 | I want to grow in understanding Christ's welcome of me as I seek to welcome others with the same love |
| 7 | I don't always treat or think of people with the dignity and respect they are worth as image bearers of God |

|---|--|
| 1 | I don't often change my plans in order to help someone else |
| 2 | I recognise the importance of remembering the poor but it just isn't a priority for me |
| 3 | I know Jesus healed people and sent his disciples to heal people, but I'm not really sure if He sends us out to do the same |
| 4 | I'm not confident that I what know what to say if someone asked me to explain the gospel to them |
| 5 | I've never thought that breaking spiritual oppression / demonic strongholds is something that every disciple of Jesus is empowered to do |
| 6 | My home is my safe space and the idea of inviting 'strangers' into that space really scares me |
| 7 | I recognise that needs all around me but I don't really believe that I can make any difference |

Now, total up how many you selected of each number (E.g. How many number 1's, 2's, 3's etc.) and fill out the boxes below. This will show what area of kingdom works the Holy Spirit may be wanting you to step into and grow in fruitfulness.
